Baseball's most popular and exciting player, Ken Griffey Jr., adds his name and baseball expertise to Nintendo's newest Super NES baseball game. It was the fifth game of the 1995 American League Wild Card Playoffs. Down by one run in the bottom of the eleventh inning, the Seattle Mariners, with Ken Griffey Jr. up to bat, were setting the stage for the most exciting finish in a divisional series. Ken Griffey Jr. smacked a single to center field to advance a runner to third base. Then the American League batting champ stepped into the batter's box and drove a pitch deep to left field; one run scored easily to tie the game.

But Wait!

Here comes Ken Griffey Jr. rounding third.

He's going to try the impossible, scoring from first base.

The throw to the plate is on its way.

Ken Griffey Jr. hits the dirt.

The throw is not in time! The Seattle Mariners advance to the American League Championship Series, thanks in part to Ken Griffey Jr.'s winning run!

MLB™ CHALLENGE

A challenging mode in which you play each team once. You may play an opponent or select the CPU as your challenger.

IP VS COM: Play against the computer. Games progressively get harder.

IP VS 2P: Play against a human.

CONTINUE: Play a previously-saved game.

EXHIBITION: Play a single game against the CPU. You select both teams.

WORLD SERIES™

The World Series is a battle between the American League champs and the National League champs, played over seven games. Pick the team of your choice from each league to play in the championship.

IP VS COM: Play against the computer. Difficulty depends on chosen opponent, but all teams will play to the best of their ability in the World Series.

IP VS 2P: Play against a human.

CONTINUE: Continue a previously-saved World Series.

ALL-STAR GAME™

The All-Star game features the best players from both leagues at each position. The American League players form one team and the National League players form the other. There is a Homerun Derby where the top sluggers from each league compete against each other to see who can hit the most homeruns.

IP VS COM: Play against the CPU.

IP VS 2P: Play against a human.

HOMERUN DERBY: Enter the Homerun Derby contest with up to 8 players.

MLB LEAGUE

Create a new season or continue a previously-saved season. Choose up to eight teams to compete in a 26-, 52- or 162- game season. At the end of your season, you might make the playoffs and maybe the World Series!

- Select MLB League

TRADING PLAYERS

The Trade Player option is only available in the MLB League mode. You can trade players from a player-controlled team for players from any of the other teams. The exception is Ken Griffey Jr.; he cannot be traded. The VAL (value) for the player you want to trade away must be within 5 points of the VAL for the player you want to acquire. The VAL for each player changes during the season according to his performance. You must make all trades by the August 31 deadline. You are allowed to make 15 trades for your team.

TO TRADE A PLAYER

Enter the MLB LEAGUE mode.

BATTING STATS

You can look at batting stats by selecting any icon with a baseball bat on it. You can view the stats of the leagues' TOP BATTERS in the MLB LEAGUE mode after selecting the MLB UPDATE icon.

B.A.

Batting Average (Hits/At Bats)

S.A.

Slugging Average or Slugging Percentage (Total Bases from Hits/At Bats)

12 HITS

Hits are safely hitting the ball into fair play without an error.

DOUBLES

In this game, hits are recorded as doubles when a player makes it to 2nd base before the play is stopped by the umpire.

TRIPLES

In this game, hits are recorded as triples when a player makes it to 3rd base before the play is stopped by the umpire.

HOMERS

Homers are hits that go over the homerun fence in fair territory.

RBI

Runs Batted In. If a player gets a hit and a run scores as a result, the batter is given an RBI for bringing the run in. RBIs can be gained by walking-in a run but not on plays where an error allows the run to score.

RUNS

Runs are when a player safely makes it around the bases to score a run.

SB

Stolen Bases. If the batter hits the ball on a stolen base attempt it is a hit and run, and not considered a stolen base.

BB

Base on Balls or Walk. When a batter is pitched four balls before three strikes, he is awarded a walk to first base.

PITCHING STATS

You can look at pitching stats by selecting any icon with a baseball hat on it. You can view the stats of the leagues' TOP PITCHERS in the MLB LEAGUE mode after selecting the MLB UPDATE icon.

ERA

Earned Run Average. Runs that a pitcher allows to score as a result of hits and walks that he has allowed. If a run scores as a result of an error, the run is unearned and does not count against the pitcher.

WINS

Wins are registered by starting pitchers that pitch at least 5 innings, leave the game with their team winning and have their team retain that lead for the entire game. Relievers register a win when: their team takes the lead and retains it in the same inning that that pitcher is pitching. Tie scores during a game nullify the winning status of a pitcher.

14

LOSSES

Losses are registered by any pitcher that gives up his team's lead in the game, resulting in his team losing the game. Tie scores nullify the losing status of a pitcher.

SAVES

Saves are registered for relief pitchers when the relief pitcher is the finishing pitcher (but not the winning pitcher) in a game won by his team. He also must meet one of these three requirements: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs, and pitches at least 1 inning. b) he enters the game with the potential tying run on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least 3 innings.

W-L

Win-Loss. Number of wins and losses.

IP

Innings Pitched is the number of innings a pitcher pitches in, with each out in a game equivalent to 1/3 of an inning. There are 27 total outs in a game, equaling 9 innings.

15

SO

Strike Outs occur when a batter is pitched three strikes before four balls.

BB

Base on Balls or Walk. When a batter is pitched four balls before three strikes, he is awarded a walk to 1st base.

BR/9

How many runners a pitcher allows on base (via hit or walk, not error) per 9 innings.

SO/9

Strike Outs per 9 innings.

INDIVIDUAL STATS
